'Vietnam's population is about 78 million. Out of this about 5 million are Catholics. Missionaries first arrived in Vietnam over 400 years ago. Today, as in the past, the Church in Vietnam suffers persecution.' [Far East Panorama p.1]

Sixteen Parishioners including three younger parishioners will travel to Cofton Park for the Pope's visit. For those going, except the younger parishioners, now is the time to pay the £25.00. For the three younger ones, there will be a voluntary collection next Sunday. Ideally we are looking for £75.00 and, if there is a bit more, they can have the excess to buy a little souvenir of their pilgrimage. So far, we are sending on pilgrimage the biggest group from any parish in our deanery ... there should be a special prize for that! The other day somebody asked, "Are we paying for the Pope's Mass?" Actually we are not paying for the Mass but for all the other expenses involved in the visit.
