'The liturgical service takes place on earth, but it belongs to the realm of heavenly realities ... Here, something is happening that is greater than any marvel for the Holy Spirit descends on us.'

Next Saturday evening Mass at 6.15 in Hassop and next Sunday morning Mass in Bakewell at 10.00am.

A Huge Word of Thanks to those brave pilgrims who took on the journey to Birmingham for the Pope's visit last Sunday. On EWTN Pope Benedict has been speaking about the "Brave Brits" – not his exact words – who made his trip such a happy and memorable one. We owe a word of thanks to Jane for organising the Deanery coaches and sticking everything together with her Sellotape and staples.

This weekend Fr Josephat CSSp is visiting us. We give him a warm welcome and hope he enjoys his visit. Also, we give out the CAFOD envelopes for next Friday.

Monday Evening the R.E. gathering in the presbytery at 5.15pm. It is open to all who would like to come along.

Tuesday at 1-00pm Social Committee meets in the presbytery to plan the two events taking place later on.

Parish 100 Club recent winners were J. Horton, J. Lovett, V. Hope and D. Jewitt. It is 'the season of renewal' and Mary Pickard will be asking most of the 78 members to give her their subscriptions. We still look for 22 new members to reach that magic number of 100

October Diary:

The first 4 weekends in October we have the parish 'head count': numbers for men, women and children are asked for. Welcomers, please make sure you do this counting discreetly during Mass (perhaps at the Offertory). Recent years saw us having averages of 133 ('07), 128 ('08) and 122 ('09). In the last 20 years or so, average weekend attendance has decreased by about 30 and, at present, we have no youngsters for First Holy Communion.

1st Harvest Fast Day (CAFOD) and First Friday

7th Deanery meeting in Alfreton

9th Altar Servers Mass in the Cathedral with the Bishop

10th AGM in the parish rooms (see below)

Parish Cemetery Update: The present wall repairs have been completed and we are now waiting for the promised grants to make their way towards the parish.

Boxes and Baskets of Hope: Now that the Pope's visit is over, we can put some energy into preparing the Boxes of Hope. Needed are items that can be easily packed such as those mentioned on the attachments given out last week.

Not needed – toy weapons, packs of cards, glassware, battery operated toys. Sweets & chocolates are to be given separately so that each box will have some in. Boxes are available in both churches for contributions and Jane Horton will give any more information if required.

The Parish Pastoral Council AGM takes place on Sunday 10th October after the 10am Mass followed by refreshments.

The Agenda: – Reports from:- PPC Chairman (Peter Peel), Fr Hugh, Gerry Smith (Treasurer), Peter Marsh (for Social Committee).

Election to the PPC: There are three vacancies on PPC following retirements and three members are seeking re-election. Please send nominations in writing to Fr Hugh with the names of the proposer and seconder with the candidates' consent before 26th September.

From the SVP: Over the last 3 weeks we have highlighted some of the activities of the SVP. Our commitment is for Catholic action and our motto is "Changing Lives for the Better". On Monday (27th) is the feast of St Vincent de Paul and, after Mass, we'll have our meeting. You are very welcome to join us in the parish rooms and find out more about the important work we do. Alternatively, contact Chris Holmes for further details.

Received from CAFOD a letter thanking the parish for the recent £300 donation from our Sheepdog Sunday!

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Anthony Culshaw, Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Mary Sheldon, Joe Burns, Michael and Shirley Plant.

Anniversaries: We pray especially for Stuart Davidson, Fr Edward Oliver CSSp., Kathleen Wright, Anthea Haywood, James Stafford, Ann Culshaw and Margaret McGarity. May their souls and the souls of the Faithful departed rest in peace.
